2. Before your presentation, other speakers from CIA will have spoken on "Strategic Intelligence," "The Concept of National Security," "Guerrilla Warfare," "Communist Ideologies," "Biographic Intelligence," and "Background of Communist Activity in Europe." The latter is being covered by [REDACTED] of the OTR School of International Communism. Some days after your presentation there will be one on "Soviet Intelligence" presented by [REDACTED]. Finally, ORR and OSI will also give lectures.

3. The title of your presentation, scheduled for 16 May, 1300 to 1450, is "Background of Communist Activity in the Middle East." The general scope indicated by Fort Holabird is: "The character of the Sino-Soviet Empire offensive in the Middle East, current trends and future implications." Greece and Turkey will be included in the discussion on "Communist Activity in Europe." India should either be excluded or treated lightly. Also, you will note that there are officers from Iraq participating. The classification of the material should be limited to Confidential. I realize that the guidance provided on the lecture is not as specific as it could be. The Fort Holabird officers are leaving the specific treatment of the topic to our judgment.

4. About one week before the presentation, it would be advisable for your secretary to call code 11, x56086, at the Pentagon (Fort Holabird liaison) to make arrangements for a car to pick you up on the day of the lecture. Time and place of pickup can be mutually agreed upon. You are invited to have lunch with the staff at Fort Holabird, beginning sometime between 1145 and 1200. When you arrive at the School building, you should ask for Lieutenant Colonel Mark Hanson. Either he will be there or he will have designated someone to meet you.
